A Prayer for Memorial Day

Father, we could never thank our military men and women enough for their courageous service and sacrifice to our country and its people. Yet today we lift up our voices to express gratitude and honor to these military troops both from the past and present. Show us ways in our communities, churches and families to thank and love them better. Keep and protect these heroes and their families, in the powerful name of Jesus. Amen.

With Thanks and Appreciation

Four years ago I came to Saint Margaret Parish at Father Mike's invitation. It was much like coming home again as I had started my priesthood here in 1999. I will have such wonderful memories of a great time for me in my life and spiritual growth in recovery. Each of you have welcomed me and encouraged me. It is bittersweet as thus it is the second time in my 15 years of my priesthood that I have been asked to take on a challenging assignment. Both times I felt comfortable and at home where I am, but I feel called by the Spirit to answer this call.

I also have wanted to return to my roots in Mountain Maryland to re-join or be closer to some of my family. I am honored that the Archbishop has faith in me. Thanks for the eight plus years in two tours at Saint Margaret Parish. May we keep each other in prayer and may God continue to bless each of us.

Father Doug

From Father Mike

Dear Friends,

This is Father Doug Kenney's last weekend here at Saint Margaret.

Two weeks ago we announced that Father Doug is being assigned as Temporary Administrator of Saint Peter Parish in Oakland, Maryland. Father Doug's assignment is effective on June 1.

This re-assignment for Father has happened quickly and for a good reason. Father Don Parson, the Pastor of the Oakland parish, died suddenly on April 25. Father Parson had been the only resident Archdiocesan priest in Garrett County. Therefore, Archbishop Lori needed to move very quickly to provide a priest for this westernmost county of Maryland and of the Archdiocese.

We will miss Father Doug. As many of you recall, Father came here as a newly ordained priest and served here for his first four years of priesthood. He returned here in March of 2010 for his second "tour of duty" at Saint Margaret. That term "tour of duty" is so appropriate for Father given his earlier career in the United States Navy. We have come to love Father Doug as a friendly, engaging person with a great sense of humor and a hearty laugh. He has given of himself to us in many ways – celebrating sacraments, preaching, guiding and assisting in the Faith Formation Programs, visiting the elderly and the sick, supporting the Boy Scouts especially those working on Eagle projects, caring in a special way for those troubled by addiction, and on it goes. We will miss him.

Oakland is the main town and county seat of Garrett County. Saint Peter Parish is located right in the center of the town, but it also has a second site in McHenry called Saint Peter by the Lake. Those of you who have visited Deep Creek Lake in the summer or go there for skiing in the winter know how beautiful that part of Maryland is. In the summer months, when there are many vacationers, Saint Peter's has four Masses each weekend, two at each site. Fortunately, Father Doug will have the weekend assistance of a retired Archdiocesan priest who lives along Deep Creek Lake and is also a good friend. By the way, Father Doug was born and raised in Frostburg, so in many ways this is a happy return to the part of the State that he knows and loves.

On behalf of all of us, I thank Father Doug for his ministry here and wish him well. He is always welcome here as, I am sure, we also will be welcomed by him if we visit Garrett County.

There is a newly formed organization here in Harford County called the Society of Italian American Businessmen (SIAB). This organization was just formed within the past year and, as its name states, consists of men of Italian-American descent. One of their core purposes is to contribute money to worthy non-profits in the community and to young Italian-American students through scholarships.

This Society decided to honor the Outreach Ministries of Saint Margaret Parish this year. We were honored at SIAB's first annual Gala on April 11 at the Richlin Ballroom. SIAB contributed $10,000 to us for our Outreach Ministries. The Gala was a wonderful and exciting event and I am deeply grateful for both the recognition and the gift to the parish. I have committed us to doing something new with this money, something that we are not yet doing in our Outreach ministry. I will say more about this as soon as we have details worked out. Meanwhile, I again thank SIAB for this recognition of Saint Margaret Parish and our Outreach Ministries.

Helpful Suggestions for Parents with Young Children at Mass

- Some families find that sitting near the front help children see.
- Share the hymnal with children.
- Quietly explain to your children what is happening during the Mass.
- Encourage children to place their own money or the family's envelope in the collection basket.
- Feel free to use the cry room, located in the glassed-in area at the back of the church.
- Encourage children to extend the sign of peace to those around them.
- Books that they enjoy or their own rosaries are encouraged.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Next weekend we celebrate The Ascension of Our Lord. As a result, we miss out on the powerful readings of the 7th Sunday of Easter (Acts 1:12-14; 1Peter 4:13-16; John 17:1-11a)

In the chronology of events in their lives, the 11 apostles, after just witnessing Jesus' Ascension, returned to Jerusalem and the "upper room." We learn in the first reading that they "devoted themselves with one accord to prayer..." What was their prayer? A few days earlier Jesus had promised that the Holy Spirit would bring them power, but were they totally confident? Surely there must have been uncertainty about their future, anxiety about how to proceed with their mission and a sense of longing for the return of their Friend, Mentor and Lord.

In the second reading Peter exhorts us to rejoice when we suffer for the sake of Christ. "But whoever is made to suffer as a Christian should not be ashamed, but glorify God because of the name."

The Gospel setting is the Last Supper. His Apostles are privileged to hear Jesus' prayer to his Father, encompassing the time before the foundation of the world (v:5), the accomplishments of his earthly ministry (v:6) as well as His concern for His disciples – us (v:11). It would be inspiring to read and pray the entire 17th chapter of the Gospel of John.

Note: Did you know that there are only six ecclesiastical provinces that still celebrate the Ascension on "Holy Thursday"? (An ecclesiastical province is one large archdiocese and all the dioceses that are historically associated with it – generally one province per state.) These provinces are Boston, Hartford, New York, Newark, Philadelphia and Omaha.

Happy Easter!

At the Easter Vigil, as you watched the Baptisms and Confirmations, were you saying something like: "I keep thinking about becoming a Catholic. I wonder what that involved." "I was baptized Catholic, but never confirmed. Maybe it's time?" The preparation program begins in September, but now is an ideal time to begin exploring whether you want to participate. Contact Marie Dekowski to talk about it.

My Faith Journey...

"I was blessed with the opportunity to be a sponsor for my Son-in-Law at RCIA. I was excited but apprehensive, wondering if I would have the knowledge required. I found the RCIA process as practiced at Saint Margaret Parish to be a very inclusive and enriching experience. I gained more meaningful insight about Catholicism and my faith in particular than I could have imagined. It was a very rich and enjoyable experience. Had I realized how much I gained personally, I would have sought to participate in RCIA sooner. The RCIA team members encourage open discussion and are knowledgeable and caring. They provide a very supportive learning and reflective environment. I encourage anyone who can spend a little time on weekends during this process to consider sitting in on several sessions to see if it might provide you a new pathway for spiritual enlightenment while helping others gain insights into our faith." - Phil Perkins

For more information on our parish RCIA program, please contact Marie Dekowski.
